

Grief in Pieces : access FREE team support for suicide loss

We are working in partnership with Mind to offer Grief in Pieces, a suicide bereavement service. to all health and social care staff teams in NE London who have been affected by a suicide in the workplace.

The support through Grief in Pieces offers:

- a confidential, empathic and safe space for you and your team
- the hope that “normality” can be reached eventually
- learning new ways of approaching problems
- to discuss fears and concerns
